

Creator quick start

Choose the invitation first. Then share the matching personal link.

The couples package

Two personal guides, your couples guide, downloadable PDFs, a printable 12-week workbook, and AI chat with 100 replies per person.

Regular price: $35 for both of you. An eligible $10 discount makes it $25 before applicable tax. One payment. No subscription. Each person takes their own assessment.

The free individual assessment

Understand your strengths and everyday preferences with four free personal chapters and personality charts. Invite your partner for a free couples comparison. Allow about 15-20 minutes for the assessment. No payment details needed.

Exact personality types, deeper personal chapters and the full written couples guide are part of the paid package.

Keep your invitation and link together

Use the couples-package link when you're promoting the package. Use the free-assessment link when your invitation is to understand yourself better, starting free. Share your coupon code alongside either link, and ask customers to check the discount before paying.

Make your links and download images at figureusout.com/affiliates/materials. Use the code assigned in your affiliate dashboard; replace every [CODE] placeholder before sharing.

Make it your own

Real reactions make useful content. Pick one idea and give it a go.

What to share

Try the couples experience separately, then share a genuine observation, an everyday preference or a workbook exercise you used. You can also clearly introduce Alex and Morgan's example guides from the library. Never invent a testimonial.

For Celebrity Match, choose two public celebrities and share their result just for fun. To compare themselves with a celebrity, people take the free assessment and save their results with email. Celebrity profiles are estimates; these matches don't predict a real relationship.

They save $10. You earn $10.

One eligible first purchase earns one $10 commission; a group order earns one commission. Published payout terms: every two weeks after an initial 15-day hold, with a $10 minimum payout. Refunds and payment disputes can affect eligibility.

Keep recommendations clear

Disclose that you may earn a commission next to your recommendation. No self-referrals, paid search on Figure Us Out terms or coupon-site posting. Do not call the guides therapy, a diagnosis, an overall compatibility score or a relationship verdict.
